Where K-Culture thrives – from timeless traditions to cutting-edge trends,
K-Food delights, world-leading giants like Hyundai & Samsung,
and global education excellence.

VISA

01

Consult Korean Consulate

- Indicate your visiting period and the purpose of the visit.
- Ask for eligible visa types for your visit to Korea.

02

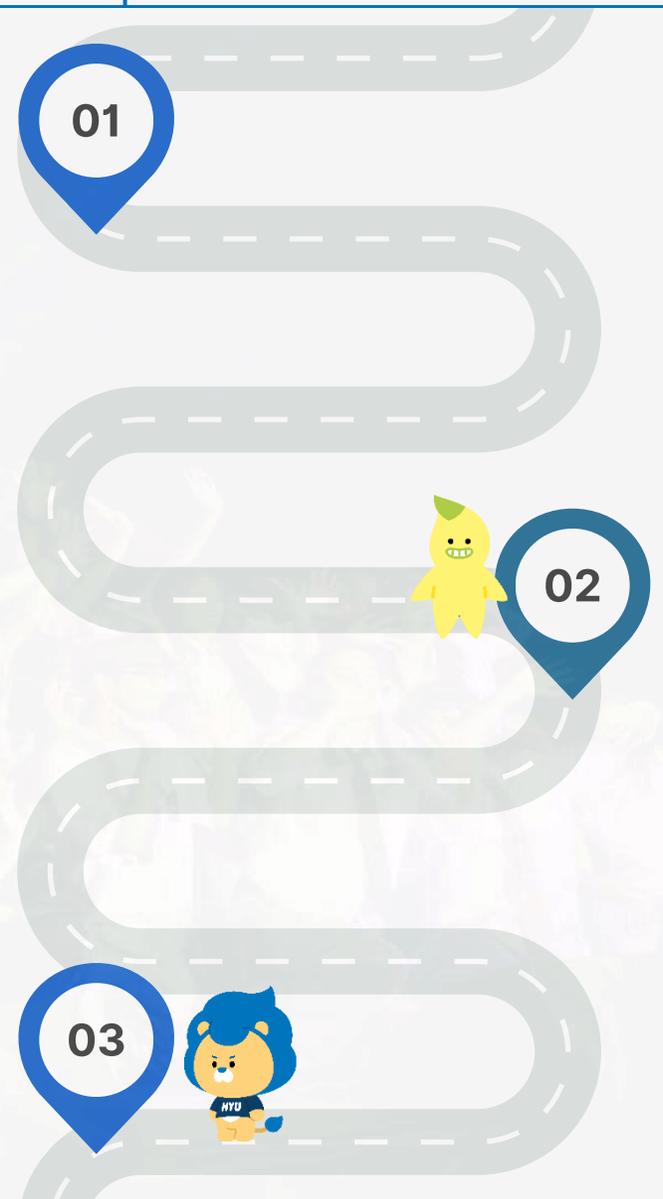

Know Your Visa Type

- K-ETA (Korea Electronic Travel Authorization)
 - Required for all nationals coming from visa-free countries/regions.
 - Some nationals may enter Korea with K-ETA but may be restricted for studying purposes. In this case, please apply for the C-3-1 visa below.
- C-3-1 (Short-term General Visit)
 - Eligible for individuals intending to visit Korea for a short period to participate in events and meetings or to obtain skills through a Korean organization.
- D-2-8 (Short-term Study Visa)
